There are lots of fun things to do in the Holiday Park.

I can play during the day until my grown up says it is bedtime.

If my grown up packs my bathers I can swim in the pool until the sun starts to set. My grown up can read me the Pool Rules and watch me while I am swimming so that I stay safe.

The pool water is warm like a bath, but it might be cold when I get out of the water.

If my grown up packs my bike or scooter and I am wearing my helmet I can ride in the Holiday Park while the sun is up.

The Holiday Park staff will remind me if I forget to wear my helmet.

I have to be very careful to watch out for people driving cars on the roads when I am walking or riding.

I can remember to stay in the Holiday Park and not go out past the front sign without my grown up.

There might be lots of grown ups and children staying in the Holiday Park. It gets a bit noisy sometimes.

My grown up can show me a quiet place if I need a break.
